Next month the scope of services will be presented, which the FAA would also like to review. C) Director of Economic Development

George Sakas spoke about the economic impact study from 2007, the 2011 report from the State of Illinois and data from those studies. He said the data is outdated. He found the firm Gruen Gruen & Associates who produced DuPage Airport’s economic impact study. He has asked the FBOs and other businesses to participate and share information and they are willing to participate. The cost of the study is within the budget, will take about twelve weeks to be completed and will be presented in February. He asked the board for their consent.

Director Lang agreed that it is important to update the study. He wants specifics and surveys from local hotels and businesses. E) CMT – Dan Pape

- Working on TIPS; meetings and follow-ups. The TIPS will be submitted in mid-December. He asked for any comments or additions.

- The FAA is issuing a supplemental funding package that CMT will submit two projects, overall airfield lighting and widening runway 12/30, and explaining the benefits. If approved, both projects would be 100% federally funded. He will know if they are approved mid to late first quarter.

- Work continues on the Master Plan project.

- The runway 12/30 project has been awarded and work is progressing.

- The east quadrant entrance road will be put out for bid in January. This project was delayed because the state did not complete the paperwork.

Chairman Harris asked how much the upcoming change in the state government administration will disrupt the project approval and funding process. Dan said the change will have minimal effect because the day to day people will remain stable.
Director Kiefer asked why start the runway 12/30 overlay project before the approval to widen. Dan explained that the funding will be lost if they wait since the widening project has not been approved. If the approval is received in the first quarter of next year, then they can combine the projects. The pavement quality is dropping and should be replaced. He will keep the board informed and spoke about different parts of the project.

Director Saewert agreed with Director Kiefer’s comments and asked what it would take to speed up a decision from the FAA. It makes more sense to combine the projects. Dan said that the decision is one that is made in Washington DC. Jamie said that he will be briefing Congressman Schneider’s office about it. Director Saewert suggested he contact Senator Duckworth and Senator Schakowsky also.

Director Katz spoke about LED lighting and asked if LEDs produce heat that will melt the snow off them. Dan spoke about heating kits for LED lights, said they have not seen issues with LEDs not producing enough heat to melt snow and that the energy savings from LEDs is a huge benefit. Director Katz said the airport should switch to all LED lighting and there was further discussion about LEDs used as runway lights.

He also asked if the new governor will be invited to the airport and given a tour. He asked who will take over the fuel sales tax issue in the new term. Jamie said he would follow up.

There was discussion with Director Katz about the quote and cost approval. Chairman Harris spoke about the Master Plan information on the airport website and thanked CMT and Images, Inc. for being at the meeting. He wished everyone a Happy Thanksgiving.

VII. New Business

A. CMT – Master Plan Update – Craig Louden

- The first SIG meeting was held on November 13th. Forty-nine participants were invited; 28 attended. The very diverse group was asked to look at an aerial photo of the airport and asked if the runway was expanded, how would they position it. The results will be compiled and displayed at the open house.

There was discussion with Chairman Harris and Director Katz about the fact that there was one corporate pilot at the SIG meeting. Director Katz would like to read the notes from the meeting.

- The first Open House is on December 4th at the Ramada. There will be a summary of the Master Plan to date, seven poster stations, a welcome video, the SIG meeting results and opportunity for written public comments. Comments will be accepted until December 19th.

Director Lang asked if there will be a speech, will expansion ideas be shown and what is the timeline for future alternatives? Craig said there will not be a speech; there will be a 3-4 minute video greeting and then people proceed into the next room. Jamie added that the video is informative, simplifies the process and will be posted to the website. Tracy summarized what the story boards at the Open House will say. Dan said the last station will give the public a chance to sit down and do the same workshop exercise that the SIG did using runway overlays. SIG and public alternatives will be combined by CMT into one set of results. Craig said the Master Plan concludes by 10/1/19, then municipalities consider approval, then an environmental study completed and then FAA approval. He stressed that just because a facility or change is shown on the Airport Layout Plan does not mean it will ever be constructed. Dan added that developments other than the runway length also need to be considered. Craig agreed that there are many other parts to the Master Plan other than the runway.

Chairman Harris clarified the process and said that no one on the board has seen any approved alternatives; this is a course of action development stage. He asked Tracy from Images, Inc. to get the message out that no decisions have been made.

Director Saewart asked what will be accomplished in the second public meeting? Craig said it will be near the end of the process and it will lay out the preferred development concept for the public to view.
Director Katz asked Tracy how the Open House is being advertised. Tracy said that email blasts went out on November 13th, ads will run in the Daily Herald on November 20th and 27th and on social media which directs the public to the Master Plan website. Director Saewert wanted to know the reach of the Daily Herald ads and Tracy said the ads would be published in the surrounding area.
